Tonight's Artists

Scott Cutler, Mixed Media Artist says: "At the age of 57 my wife bought me a beginner paint set to help fill my spare time. After some skepticism, I finally gave it a try, and the rest, as they say, is history. We were both pleasantly surprised how much I enjoyed the process of creating a variety of art pieces although I had no prior art experience or formal schooling. My passion quickly grew, as did the wide variety of artwork I have created. I have worked with acrylic painting, photography, mixed media, colleges and mechanical pieces using re-purposed items. My work has been shown in galleries and businesses throughout the Portland/Hillsboro area. My ultimate goal is the connection between the artist and the buyer while keeping my prices affordable so you have the opportunity to share my enjoyment."

Roberta Michaels, Herb's Daughter Custom Soaps was named after two loves—the love of the fragrant herbs that grow in the garden, and for the love of Roberta's father named Herb! You will find face and body creams with gentle scents of apricot and vanilla as well as other great items. Herb's Daughter Custom Soaps insists upon the highest quality of ingredients without detergents or chemicals.

Leena and Deepak Shrestha, Jewelry and Batik Artists: Leena comes from a bead making family. She grew up watching her grandmother and mother working diligently with little seed beads of vibrant color, sizes and feel. Her designs are unique, intricate and elegant. It is a belief in her family that tiny seed beads bless both the maker and the wearer with peace, love and prosperity. Her husband, Deepak, enjoys batik work and designing beautiful silver jewelry.
